Mr Président,
Dear Marc,

*Thank you for your friendly letter concerning the best airport to arrive in Paris.
For this move, it was too late but my secret services have noted your very good advice.*

First of all, I would like to take the opportunity with this letter to tell you how I changed my view about France.

*What a fabulous country !
What a beautiful town is Paris !*

I encourage all my fellow citizens to discover and to visit France.

I am, however, rather surprised to ear about such a mess inside parisians airports.

*In my turn, I am taking the liberty to give you an advice :
A so great country as France with such highly valued tourism should give full priority to have top airport infrastructures and facilities and also promote the French Airlines economic developpment
Hey Marc, there is a strong card to play for France !
As a friend of mine used to say : "France concerning the tourism is blessed by the gods"*

By the way, did Emmanuel appointed a top minister fully focused on tourism and transport in his country ?

*Anyway Dear Marc I already thinking about after Presidence.
I fully intend to come back to France as a private citizen.*

Mélania whispered me that from our Mar a Lago reidence near Miami, we could just jumped to Fort de France and fly directly to Paris Orly enjoying the excellent Air Caraïbe inflight service...

Sincerly
